Many brides want a peal of bells at their wedding, but as many churches and other wedding venues do not have bells or have only single bell, this is not always possible.

However we offer a service that is very popular even with brides not getting married in conventional church locations.

We have completely portable Public Address systems that can be discreetly located to play a peal of bells as the bridal party leave the location.

We can install a temporary public address system in Churches and other venues without a sound system of their own when one may be required.

As an alternative we can play the couples favourite song whilst the photographs are taken.

HIRE CHARGE:

Up to 2 hours £45.00 includes operator and supply of public domain recording of bells. Time over 2 hours extra. Includes return travel within 15 mile radius of Golborne Island extra mileage chargeable.
